VARIATION II.

The musical score for the Flauto principale, Variation II, consists of ten staves of music. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 2/4. The music is written in a single melodic line. The first staff begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking. The notation features a variety of note values, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. Slurs are used to indicate phrases or groups of notes. The music is characterized by its rhythmic complexity and melodic flow.
